

Longitudinal vs cross-sectional studies

Cross-sectional	Longitudinal
One point in time	Several points in time
Different samples	Same sample
Snapshot of a given point in time, change at a societal level	Change at the individual level
E.g. British Social Attitudes Survey, Labour Force Survey	E.g. British Birth Cohort Studies, Understanding Society